

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a grocer can afford to give his counter five gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and its advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon The Ledger for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppliers, excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments, where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, read at the funeral, etc. The Ledger will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however, is a concession.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Letters in The Ledger is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local notice in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says. He looks through the paper, but gets all about it. The notice runs for two months. At the end of the first month he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy. Now, to obviate this trouble, we hereby notice will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant to all around.

ALL matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are visiting friends, please send us a note to that effect.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

The Mayvilles Didn't Half Try and Won by a Score of 5 to 2.

The Bellevue Browns, with a good all-round man for a pitcher, played a picked nine at the East End Park yesterday afternoon to $25.00 worth of people and a few free routers.

It was impossible for the Mayville Club to get their regular nine together, so Charles Davis, Joe O'Donnell and Clarke Rogers pulled themselves in a uniform and went out to take in the Browns.

They played first-rate considering all things.

Captain McGann, the best ball player we've ever had in the East End Park, made a good play which should be mentioned. A man was caught between first and second, and Cap. got to first, the ball was given him and he ran the follow down between the two bases. He is a regular sprinter.

The game throughout was one of the most sensational kind, there being all kinds of plays made that the rules didn't call for.

The score was— Mayville 5, Bellevue Browns 2.

The boys who are playing are doing it on their own hook, and unless the people turn out this afternoon they will have to go down in their pockets and put up for the expenses.

A new battery arrived this morning for the Browns, and it is said to be a daisy.

The game today will be called at 3 p. m. sharp, and if you want to get a good seat you had better go early.

SHORT STOPS.

Wadsworth will pitch real ball today.

Mr. Clements and Hot Springs will be well patronized by ball players the coming winter.

Corcoran, the Norfolk's shortstop and a Cincinnati boy, is to be tried out by Conny Mack.

The Richmond have won the pennant in the Virginia League, and will play Lynchburg for the Lewis cup.

The Reds are talking of giving Frank Kehoe a trial. He is one of the greatest hitting catchers among the amateurs.

Vanceburg beat Portsmouth Sunday by a score of 15 to 5. Wellner and McGann were the battery for Vanceburg.

Wellner and Kehoe will probably be the battery in the Cincinnati game Thursday, and Johnson will do the short stop act.

Out in the Western Association, instead of referring to blanks as goose eggs or home collars, they are called "doughnuts."

The Baltimore are rooting for the Quakers to take second place. They don't look upon Cleveland as much of a baseball gins.

The Omaha Giants, a team of deaf mutes, is now being organized for a tour of the West next spring. The success of such a trip is largely problematical.

McCormick, formerly a Cincinnati Gym twirler and late with New Orleans, is to be tried by the Colonels. They will also take Sam Lever into camp if they can.

The dates for the Cincinnati-Indianapolis series of five games are September 20th and October 1st and 3d at Indianapolis and October 3d and 5th at League Park, Cincinnati.

The Manhattan accomplished what the Reds twice failed to do. At League Park they rapped 13 kinds of tar water out of George Reiman and defeated the Shamrocks 7 to 3.

Jesse Tannehill holds the record of pitching the greatest game of the year in the Virginia League. He shut Roanoke out without a hit last week, and it is also a shade better than that of any pitcher in the league.

During the past week a play was made that will stand as a curiosity of the season. In the last Washington game at Pittsburgh Charley Abbey, the center fielder, was credited with a double play unassisted. It would make any crank scratch a bald spot in a Paderewski shock of hair to figure out how an outfielder could make such a dual slaughter.

The explanation clears away all mist of doubt. Eagle Eye Beckley was on first when Stenard drove a fly into short right. It seemed safe, and St. Jacob got a more on himself—a man with two minutes to come a block and catch a train. He had reached third before the ball was caught, and knowing that he had about as much chance of getting back as a bird without wings has of flying, he didn't hustle. Ned Cartwright likewise did not seem in any hurry to touch first base after Abbey's throw-in. Indeed he had not completed the pot-out when Abbey arrived, grasped the sphere and tagged the bag himself. No such double play was ever made before.

Manager Watson was in Cincinnati yesterday and succeeded in signing several good players to fill up the small holes in the team in order that the game with the Reds Thursday will not be a farce. The round-trip rate on the train will be only $1.25. The train leaves here at 7:30 a. m. and only makes two stops—Ripley and Augusta. Returning leaves Cincinnati at 7:30 p. m. Let's all go and see the game.

I wish to sell my valuable property at Nepton, which consists of a two-story brick dwelling house, a tobacco picking warehouse, a livestock stable, and eighteen acres of land. The property is situated on the line of the Louisville and Nashville R.R., and is a square and adjoining H. D. Watson's, laid off as a homestead.

1.—Dwelling House of seven rooms, with a full bath, and a large front porch.

2.—Tobacco Picking Warehouse, containing 100,000 lbs. of tobacco.

3.—Livestock Stable, containing 100 head of stock.

4.—Eighteen acres of land, lying in the Western edge of the village of Nepton.

All the above property is owned by the property within fifty yards of the Depot.

All the above property is owned by the property within fifty yards of the Depot.

Any person desiring to purchase the property in the fact that it desires to return to my old home in North Carolina in October. If not previously sold by me, it will be offered at public sale, on the premises, on Saturday, September 28th, 1895,

at 10 a. m., and it will be sold either as a whole or in lots to suit purchasers. Terms will be cash, or on a credit of six months, with interest from date until paid.

Address me at Mt. Pleasant, Ky., or if you desire to see the property call on me at Nepton, Ky.
